

Question for written answer E-004531/2020
to the Commission
Rule 138
Guido Reil (ID)

Subject: SURE

Under the SURE regulation, the loans to fund EU financial assistance are covered by voluntary guarantees provided by the Member States to the EU. The distribution key for the Member States applies to national guarantees.

How can the decision to employ or take account of the distribution key be reconciled with the voluntary nature of the national guarantees?