Subject: A8 Motorway – a key regional development goal in Romania

The A8 motorway is a key goal in the connection of the Moldova region of Romania to Europe, and a major factor in the develop of that region. The economic crisis is worsening and there is a growing need for Europe to show support. In this context, can the Commission indicate what must be done to incorporate this extremely important goal for the citizens of the Moldova region of Romania into the National Recovery and Resilience Plan? We would call on your full support to ensure that this goal of European importance is achieved.
