

Question for written answer E-000339/2021
to the Commission

Rule 138

Özlem Demirel (The Left)

Subject: Cost of the new Frontex Headquarters in Warsaw

The European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex) has acquired from the Republic of Poland a site for its new headquarters in Warsaw, which is intended to house around 2 000 staff members on a floor space of 70 000 m² at a cost of EUR 12 million, according to Frontex estimates.

1. Where is the site of the new Frontex headquarters located and what sale terms were negotiated with the Republic of Poland?
2. When does Frontex plan to issue initial calls for tenders and when is work on the building scheduled to commence?
3. What will be the total cost of the new building (including relocation), according to Frontex estimates, and what precautions will be taken to avoid any cost overrun?