to the Commission
Rule 138
Lukas Mandl (PPE)

Subject: The Commission's reaction to the crisis in Nicaragua

On 8 July 2021, Parliament adopted a resolution on the situation in Nicaragua condemning the repressive actions of the Nicaraguan authorities, as well as the restrictive laws devised to criminalise political opponents, and calling for all arbitrarily detained political prisoners to be immediately released.

1. What measures will the Commission take to facilitate a political solution to the crisis in Nicaragua?
2. How does the Commission plan to support civil society and the independent media in Nicaragua?
3. If the situation deteriorates further, does the Commission intend to trigger the democratic clause of the EU-Central America Association Agreement, as suggested by Parliament in its resolution?
