

Question for written answer E-003932/2021
to the Commission
Rule 138
Lukas Mandl (PPE)

Subject: Support for Afghanistan and the region

The situation in Afghanistan following the Taliban takeover has been rapidly escalating and will likely give rise to population displacement.

1. What measures does the Commission intend to take to support Afghan civilians?
2. What actions does it intend to take to support countries neighbouring Afghanistan in their efforts to host refugees?
3. Has it already entered into, or does it intend to open, negotiations with countries neighbouring Afghanistan on the establishment of 'regional disembarkation platforms', as discussed in the European Council conclusions of June 2018?
