Subject: Development aid and migration

In November 2020, the European Parliament adopted a resolution on migration management as a condition for development aid.

1. What steps has the Commission taken since November 2020 to replace the donor-recipient model with one that links the disbursement of development aid to migration management?
2. With which countries has the Commission concluded agreements in this regard?
3. What specific objectives has the Commission already set in this connection?
