

Question for written answer E-001010/2022
to the Commission

Rule 138

Marian-Jean Marinescu (PPE)

Subject: Union of Equality - European Commission Guidelines for Inclusive Communication

At the end of November 2021, the European Commission produced an internal and external communication guide for EU officials recommending avoidance of the word 'Christmas' and the names 'Maria' and 'John'.

Although it has since announced the withdrawal of the document for re-examination, I do not believe that such action will be sufficient to allay concerns among European citizens regarding this perceived threat to their religious and cultural identity. Given that its reply of 11 March 2022 to Question E-000131/2022 fails to address the issues raised, I would ask the Commission once again to respond to the following questions:

1. Can it say what action has been taken regarding the person responsible for this document?
2. Is this person still employed in the same position?
