The Commission would like to thank the Honourable Member for raising the issue and is taking up this matter with the Italian authorities in order to obtain the relevant information necessary to answer this question. The Honourable Member will be kept informed accordingly about any possible follow-up.

As the Commission stated in its reply to written question E-005149/2021, recreational fishing needs to be sustainable to ensure both environmental and economic viability in the long term.