

Question for written answer E-001591/2022
to the Commission
Rule 138
Cindy Franssen (PPE)

Subject: Fight against poverty 2030

As part of the March 2021 Action Plan on the European Pillar of Social Rights, the EU has set the target of reducing the number of people living at risk of poverty or social exclusion by at least 15 million by 2030, including at least 5 million children.

1. Does the Commission have a clear vision of how it aims to meet this target?
2. What measures have already been taken that have a significant positive impact on reducing poverty within the EU?
3. Will the Commission take additional measures to ensure that the target is met by 2030?
