The Commission stands firmly against all forms of antisemitism. The Commission sees all forms of antisemitism as equally pernicious. Antisemitism is incompatible with the core values and principles on which the EU is founded. This is why the Commission presented its first-ever EU Strategy on combating antisemitism and fostering Jewish life on 5 October 2021. The Commission is determined to significantly step up the fight against antisemitism to ensure a good perspective for the future of Jews in Europe.

With antisemitism worryingly on the rise, in Europe and beyond, the Strategy sets out a series of measures articulated around three pillars: to prevent all forms of antisemitism; to protect and foster Jewish life; and to promote research, education and Holocaust remembrance.

The Strategy comprises over 70 actions, to be implemented by 2030, including enhancing support to training programmes and capacity-building activities on tackling antisemitism for justice and law enforcement professionals, stepped up cooperation with online companies to curb antisemitism online, measures to better protect public spaces and places of worship, setting up a European research hub on contemporary antisemitism and creating a network of sites where the Holocaust happened.

These measures will be reinforced by the EU's international efforts to lead the global fight against antisemitism.
