Subject: Expanding EU sanctions against Russian persons and entities to include those on the Anti-Corruption Foundation's list of 6 000

Is the Vice-President of the Commission / High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy (VP/HR) aware that the Anti-Corruption Foundation has put together a list of around 6 000 people and entities who are directly linked to President Putin, yet fall outside the scope of EU sanctions¹?
2. Can the VP/HR confirm if it is true that thousands of Russian persons and entities who are directly contributing to the war still fall outside the scope of EU sanctions?
3. What will the VP/HR do to ensure that the scope of the sanctions is extended to cover those on this list of persons and entities? Will the VP/HR also work with global allies to achieve this goal?
