The Single Resolution Board (SRB) is an autonomous EU body, independent of the Commission and founded by Regulation (EU) No 806/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 July 2014 establishing uniform rules and a uniform procedure for the resolution of credit institutions and certain investment firms in the framework of a Single Resolution Mechanism and a Single Resolution Fund\(^1\). The Commission has no role in the individual recruitment decisions taken by the SRB, which exercises its own appointing authority powers for the recruitment of staff members.

The Commission supports the geographical balance of the EU civil service. However, the Commission cannot extend to the SRB the call to the European supervisory authorities (ESAs) referred to in its answer to Question E-003174/2021\(^2\), as Regulation (EU) No 806/2014\(^3\) does not confer to the Commission any power to issue an opinion on the SRB programming document.

The Commission has asked the SRB to provide further details to reply to the question put forward by the Honourable Member. The reply of the SRB will be transmitted by the Commission to the Honourable Member as soon as possible.
