

Question for written answer E-002845/2022
to the Commission

Rule 138

Pascal Arimont (PPE)

Subject: Cross-border teleworking

In his answer of 11 August 2022 to question P-002220/2022, Commissioner Gentiloni said that the Commission is continuing to work with Member States, the OECD and stakeholders to find long-term solutions to the tax and social security repercussions faced by cross-border teleworkers.

1. What specific long-term solutions does the Commission have in mind?
2. What is the timeline for coming up with these solutions?