to the Vice-President of the Commission / High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy

Rule 138

Christine Anderson (ID)

Subject: Admission to Canadian elections only for vaccinated candidates

Local elections are about to take place in Canada. All candidates must be able to demonstrate an adequate vaccination status. Otherwise they will not be able to stand.

What is the Commission's assessment of such preconditions for participation in elections, and does it consider such a procedure for elections to be conceivable in the EU?
