to the Vice-President of the Commission / High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy

Rule 138

Subject: Support for authorities in Libya to conduct maritime operations

While the Libyan Army coast guard is not currently being trained by EU units, training for the General Coast Guard Administration and the Libyan Navy coast guard is being provided via EUBAM Libya.

1. What training courses has EUBAM Libya organised since 2021 for maritime authorities in Libya, who has taken part and where have the courses been held?
2. With what EU Member States is the mission negotiating a working arrangement for the training of Libyan police or customs authorities, and who has been approached in this connection?
3. To what extent does this also include law enforcement, and what information can the VP/HR provide about the content of the training?
