

Question for written answer E-003833/2022
to the Commission
Rule 138
Lars Patrick Berg (ECR)

Subject: Swiss Border Control

In Germany, there is currently great concern that the Swiss authorities are taking a lax approach to their obligations to control migrants passing through Switzerland. Reports confirm that migrants are simply being waved across the Swiss borders into the EU, which contravenes the Dublin Regulation.

1. In the light of the current situation, what further controls can be implemented at the Swiss border?
2. Will the Swiss authorities be reminded of their international obligations?

Submitted: 28.11.2022