to the Commission

Rule 138

Ana Miranda (Verts/ALE)

Subject: Galicia's inclusion in the trans-European transport network

The trans-European transport network is a planned network of priority passenger and freight routes. In Galicia, the network is seen as highly valuable for economic development and encouraging people to remain.

1. Is it guaranteed that Galicia will be included in the network and receive the related investment?
What is the timeframe for the network to become fully operational?
2. How will the high-speed Atlantic Corridor between Galicia and Portugal connect to the network?
What is the timeframe and what funds will be earmarked for it?
