to the Commission
Rule 138

Subject: Commission support for FEMYSO and affiliated bodies

FEMYSO is an overarching network of bodies seeking to develop political Islam in Europe. This organisation and dozens of its partners are receiving Commission support and funding notwithstanding their overt desire to realise the ambitions of the Muslim Brothers, namely the spread of Islam in the EU. They are also adopting the methods of the Muslim Brothers, including entryism and the infiltration of national and supranational bodies, while portraying themselves as victims, seeking the spread of mosques and the progressive radicalisation of young Muslims and promoting the 'hijab' and other forms of female repression as instruments of emancipation. The Commission's willingness to put its shoulder to the wheel for such an organisation is therefore all the more remarkable.

1. How many person-to-person or online meetings have taken place between FEMYSO and Commissioner Helena Dalli during the current electoral term?
2. How many person-to-person or online meetings have taken place between FEMYSO and Commissioner Ylva Johansson during the current electoral term?
