Subject: Deployment of cyber support teams

The European External Action Service deploys cyber support teams in support of friendly third countries; there was a deployment to Ukraine before the war broke out, for instance, and Moldova has made a similar request.

1. In the past five years, what countries have submitted requests to the EU for the deployment of cyber support teams, and what requirements were set out in those requests?
2. In the past five years, to what countries has the EU deployed cyber support teams and over what periods?
3. What EU Member States have taken part in the cyber support teams' individual missions, and what capabilities did they provide?
