Subject: Relations between the EU and Iran

According to the EEAS website, the EU supports a balanced, comprehensive approach with Iran, including dialogue, with a view to addressing all issues of concern, critical when there are divergences and cooperative when there is mutual interest.

In 2022 the EU made an initial sum of EUR 11 million available for humanitarian aid to Iran, taking the total amount of humanitarian support provided by the EU since 2016 to EUR 111 million.

1. What mutual interests has the Commission identified between the EU and Iran?
2. What conditions are attached to the humanitarian support provided to Iran?
3. Does the Commission plan to withdraw this support?
