

Question for written answer E-003002/2023 to the Commission
Rule 138
Gunnar Beck (ID)

Subject: Follow-up to parliamentary question E-001379/2023 on compliance with the Solvency II Directive by the Romanian Financial Supervisory Authority

In its answer to parliamentary question E-001379/2023¹, the Commission states that it ‘understands’ that serious prudential concerns were confirmed by a separate assessment of the valuation of technical provisions of Euroins undertaken by the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA). Yet, in its response to my letter of 27 September 2023 (Ares(2023)9565217), the Commission states the EIOPA report ‘has not been made public, nor has it been shared with the European Commission’.

1. How is the Commission aware of an EIOPA report, as well as its contents, that has not been shared with the Commission and which allegedly points to serious prudential concerns?
2. As soon as it was ‘understood’ that serious prudential concerns were confirmed, what steps did the Commission take to request that EIOPA disclose the report to the Commission?
3. As soon as it was ‘understood’ that serious prudential concerns were confirmed, what steps did the Commission take to look into the corruption allegations and suspicions surrounding the Romanian Financial Supervisory Authority?
