to the Commission

Rule 138

Ioan-Rareş Bogdan (PPE)

Subject: Clarifications concerning EU financial support to Palestine

The fact that there are EU-funded Palestinian schoolbooks and teaching material containing messages of hatred towards the Israelis shows the suspicions regarding the ends to which EU financial support is being put to be legitimate.

It is outrageous that incitement to hatred and violence, something the EU has been fighting against since its very foundation, is being indirectly supported due to negligence.

Every Euro cent needs to be accounted for if we are to put an end to suspicions about EU aid to Palestinians reaching Hamas.

Does the Commission have clear documentary evidence of exactly where EU funds in support of various Palestinian projects are going? If so, will it make that information public?
