Subject: Influence of Qatar and Qatar Charity in the EU

The Muslim fundamentalist emirate of Qatar and the NGO Qatar Charity are spending billions throughout the world.

For example, Qatar is the largest donor in US higher education, in a context in which US universities have received more than USD 13 billion from Islamic regimes in the Middle East. Arab Petrodollars have also flowed into the coffers of HEC in France and been used to bribe a number of Socialist Members of the European Parliament.

1. Has the Commission looked into Qatar's influence on the EU economy and politics?
2. If so, what were its findings?
3. What measures has the Commission taken to reduce the influence of Qatar and other Arab countries in the EU?
