to the Commission

Rule 138

Asger Christensen (Renew)

Subject: Road projects

1. Would the Commission comment on whether complete, precise and final findings and conclusions that can eliminate any reasonable scientific doubt that construction of a motorway does not affect protected nature and protected species and their habitats should be available before decisions are made about a final route?
2. Would the Commission state whether the Danish authorities have been in dialogue with it regarding the construction of a motorway on route 54 between Næstved and Rønnede?
