Rule 138

Subject: Discrimination against Easyjet staff

In Portugal, the low-cost airline EasyJet has agreed to provide its staff with compensation for losses (sales commissions and flights) during the pandemic, namely between 1 March 2020 and 31 December 2021. In practice, however, certain workers who transferred to a different workplace while remaining Easyjet staff have been left out. These workers feel discriminated against, since as employees of the company during the period in question they will not receive this compensation.

What view does the Commission take of this behaviour by Easyjet and the discrimination it has caused between workers from different Member States.
