The meeting opened at 9:01 with Irene Tinagli, Chairperson, presiding remotely.

1. Adoption of agenda

   Decision: The draft agenda was adopted in the form shown in these minutes.

2. Approval of minutes of meetings

   • 1 July 2021

   Decision: The minutes were approved.

3. Chair’s announcements

   Coordinators’ meeting of 13 July 2021 - Summary of decisions and recommendations

   1. Nominations

   It was decided to discuss the current files for nominations at the Coordinators’ meeting on 19 July which will be dedicated to nominations following the publication of the PRIIPs proposals.

   The Secretariat was asked to provide further information on allocation of “virtual points”.

   Decision: The minutes were approved.

   The meeting opened at 9:01 with Irene Tinagli, Chairperson, presiding remotely.
2. Joint ECON-LIBE public hearing on AML

A written consultation on the topics/speakers to be invited will be launched by the Secretariat.

3. Economic governance

The Chair’s proposal, based on the suggestions sent by groups, for expertise (to be requested by EGOV) supporting economic governance scrutiny in the autumn 2021 was endorsed by Coordinators:

1. Phase out of the crisis support measures: How successful are Member States in moving from broad support measures towards more targeted support?
2. An overview of how the major economies have responded to the Covid-19 pandemic: Consequences for growth trajectories and debt sustainability, including the impact of contingent liabilities, and analysis of best practices.
3. The added value of the RRF, based on an assessment of the Recovery and Resilience Plans

The Chair informed Coordinators of the agreement of the Commission to the appointment of Mr Georgiou as EP representative in ESGAB. The Chair will inform the EP President in this respect.

4. European Gender Equality Week

A written consultation on possible topics/speakers to be invited will be launched by the Secretariat.

5. Committee business going forward

Following an exchange among Coordinators where the wish was expressed to go back to the “old normal”, the Chair concluded that more time should be made available for the debate on legislation in ECON, that public hearings could be shorter, and that Coordinators will discuss new modalities on how to conduct debates at the September Coordinators’ meeting. The Secretariat was asked to prepare a note on this matter.

6. Petitions

No comments were made on the suggested follow-up to petition No 0231/2019.

7. FISC subcommittee

- Preparation of the joint ECON-FISC Coordinators’ meeting: following an exchange of views among Coordinators, Coordinators agreed that FISC could provide its input to ECON in form of an informal opinion or a letter when requested.
- FISC recommendations of 28 June: Coordinators endorsed the recommendations.
- FISC Public Hearing on the “Luxletters revelations”: Coordinators endorsed the FISC Coordinators’ decision to hold a public hearing on the matter.
8. Chair’s announcements

- The Chair informed Coordinators that, following the CoP meeting of 8 July, committees were asked to indicate any possible requests for committee missions and ad hoc delegations in weeks 44 and 51 by Thursday 15 July at noon. No comments were made by Coordinators.

Votes on the amendments on item 4 took place from 09:06 to 10:06 and, in line with the announcement of the Chair, the final votes took place between 12:00 and 13:00.
