A. Workstreams' priorities for 2022

In addition to focus the FISC work on the two workstreams decided in December, the Coordinators agreed to task the Secretariat to monitor the political responses given to EP resolutions or INI reports on tax issues. Regular exchanges of views with the Commission/relevant institutions will be organised to discuss the follow-up given to the EP reports or resolutions in the tax area. This monitoring exercise will start once the last 2021 INI FISC report will be adopted by the plenary in March (the Niedermayer INL report).

Coordinators also decided to commission a study on the taxation of the informal economy. They postponed any decision on the best appropriate follow-up to be given on the implementation of the OECD agreement until the end of the year.

Finally, the Coordinators exchanged views on the planning of hearings/exchange of views until the summer break. A formal decision will be taken at the next meeting, taken written input into account.

B. Allocation of Rapporteurship of next INI reports

The Coordinators agreed to request authorisation for the two following own-initiative reports, in this respective order:

- “Lessons learnt from the Pandora Papers and other revelations”;
- “Further reform of corporate taxation rules”.
