C. Public hearings and missions in the first half of 2023

1. Public hearings:

The Coordinators decided to request authorisation to the CCC/CoP for the following hearings:

- 27 October 2022: NEW: Increasing energy prices and inflation: the role of taxation in the context of high inflation
- January 2023: What should the BEFIT proposal look like?
- February 2023: Exchange of Views with the OECD on the implementation of the Global Agreement on both pillars 1 and 2
- March 2023: Exchange of views with the Chair of Code of Conduct Group on Business Taxation
- April 2023: MOVED FROM OCTOBER 2022: "The work of national tax authorities: resources, strategies, cooperation"
- May - June 2023: on hold until a decision is taken on the new work stream. The possibility to have a hearing to analyse existing windfall profits taxes was discussed.

2. Missions

The Coordinators agreed to request authorisation for the following missions:

- Croatia (3 days including travel time - week 3-7 April)
- UK and its Crown Dependencies: 4 days including travel time during week 19-23 June - 2 days London, 2 days in Jersey and Guernsey

The Coordinators also discussed the possibility of requesting authorisation for a mission to Washington D.C. The issue will be discussed again at the next Coordinators' meeting.

D. European Year of Youth 2022

The Coordinators agreed to invite the following experts to the panel "Why Should Young Europeans Care About Taxation?":

- 1) A representative of the Young European Federalists (JEF Europe) will be invited to formulate questions on the topic of the hearing that would arise from the perspective of young people. He/she will present these questions in an intervention at the beginning of the hearing and will be invited to react to the presentation of speakers and the discussion with Members at the end of the hearing.
- 2) In addition, a majority of Coordinators agreed during the meeting to invite the following speakers:
 - the Bund der Steuerzahler Deutschland e.V. to present their learning programme on Income Tax - School Year 2021/2022;
 - Giorgia Maffini (University of Oxford) who co-authored a recent paper on the "The Impact of Digitalisation on Personal Income Taxes" (2021) which considers the potential impact on personal income taxes due to the acceleration of digitalisation and remote working (digital nomads);
 - Steuerfabi (www.steuerfabi.de), a social media influencer with 600k followers dedicated to teaching about taxes and to financial literacy.

The Coordinators also asked the FISC Secretariat to provide in written more background information on the Bund der Steuerzahler Deutschland e.V., Steuerfabi and the Organising Bureau of European School Student Unions (OBESSU).

E. Mission to Luxembourg (20 & 21 October 2022)

The Coordinators endorsed the draft programme of the mission. In addition, they suggested to also invite employers and workers facing cross border tax issues in their daily activities. An updated version of the programme will be circulated in due time.

The Coordinators endorsed the draft programme of the mission.

They were invited to provide the Secretariat with names of the Members participating in this mission and to make proposals of persons and institutions they would like to meet during the mission.

G. Future committee working regime

The Coordinators endorsed the future working regime:

- All Committee meetings will be with an in situ participation of Members.
- Experts (except those representing an EU institution or body) invited to public hearings, workshops as well as Members of national parliaments will be allowed to participate remotely;
- Remote participation of Members shall take place only in exceptional circumstances and with the approval of coordinators representing a majority of committee Members.
- Members physically present in Parliament shall attend committee meetings in person.
- The decision on applying the hybrid meeting mode in case of non-public informal committee activities (Coordinators' meetings, shadows' meetings, working group meetings, monitoring group meetings, etc.) is delegated to the Chair (for those meetings convened by the Chair, such as coordinators' meetings) and to the rapporteurs.
- When connecting to a hybrid meeting, Members shall use technical equipment that ensures the necessary audio and video quality and select the place of their intervention in a way that takes into account the possible implication on the public image of Parliament. If necessary, the committee Chair shall take measures with the aim of protecting the dignity of Parliament or the good organisation and development of the meeting.

H. Follow up on Uber Leaks

On 11 July 2022, the ICIJ revealed that in 2015 the Dutch tax authorities purposefully delayed responses to information requests by five European countries (France, Germany, Sweden, the UK and Belgium) seeking access to Uber's and drivers' tax liabilities in their countries.

There was a majority among Coordinators to prepare a letter to ask the Commission about its assessment as regards a potential breach of the Directive on Administrative Cooperation in the tax area. The draft letter will be circulated to Coordinators for comments.

I. Nomination rapporteur AFCO opinion

The Coordinators decided to allocate the opinion under Rule 56 on the AFCO implementation report on "The implementation of "passerelle" clauses in the EU Treaties" to the Renew Group.
