

ORAL QUESTION H-0561/99

for Question Time at the part-session in November 1999
pursuant to Rule 43 of the Rules of Procedure
by Stanislaw Tillich
to the Commission

Subject: Studies carried out at the Commission's request by the Institute for European Economic and Consumer Law

Dr Thomas Roethe, co-founder and director of this institute, refers in the preface of his recently published book from the Eichborn-Verlag entitled 'Arbeiten wie bei Honecker – Leben wie bei Kohl' ('Work like under Honecker – Live like under Kohl') to the fact that he has already carried out several studies at the Commission's request on the subject of 'the transition of the socialist states to Western democracy'.

Can the Commission provide a list of the studies it has commissioned from the Institute for European Economic and Consumer Law in Berlin?
