

ORAL QUESTION H-0166/03

for Question Time at the part-session in April 2003

pursuant to Rule 43 of the Rules of Procedure

by James Fitzsimons

to the Council

Subject: Annual Policy Strategy and initiatives

In its Communication to the European Parliament and the Council on its Annual Policy Strategy for 2004, the Commission states its intention in the area of 'sustainable growth' to improve general quality of life for European citizens, focusing in particular on initiatives in health and consumer protection, health and safety at work, road safety and new trans-European energy networks as well as new initiatives in the education of youth. In the context of these commitments what specific initiatives would the Council like the Commission to take, particularly as regards the education of youth?
