

ORAL QUESTION H-0847/03
for Question Time at the part-session in February 2004 pursuant to Rule 43 of the Rules of Procedure
by Mary Banotti
to the Council

Subject: Social inclusion, third sector

Given the fact that much of the funding for the development of the third sector and improving social inclusion in Ireland and other Member States came from the European Union, what priority is the Irish Presidency giving to tackling social exclusion and poverty, and how does the Council intend to promote social inclusion in disadvantaged areas of the Union?
