

ORAL QUESTION H-1046/06
for Question Time at the part-session in December 2006 pursuant to Rule 109 of the Rules of Procedure
by Piia-Noora Kauppi
to the Commission

Subject:           Transparency of pricing of legal services

In various Member States, codes of conduct ensure that the prices of legal services are stated openly, for example on the website of the business offering them. Although legal services only to a limited extent fall within the scope of the Services Directive, has the Commission considered the possibility of drafting a European code of conduct for the pricing of legal services?

Tabled: 28.11.2006
fi