

ORAL QUESTION H-0055/08
for Question Time at the part-session in February 2008 pursuant to Rule 109 of the Rules of Procedure
by Evgeni Kirilov
to the Commission

Subject: Lack of possibility for EU citizens to use the Cyrillic and Greek alphabets when ordering publications from the EU bookstore

According to EU legislation all official languages and alphabets are equal, and EU citizens can use them equally. How can the Commission explain the lack of possibility for EU citizens to use the Cyrillic and Greek alphabets when ordering publications from the EU bookstore, managed by the EU Official Publications Office?

Tabled: 04.02.2008
bg