

ORAL QUESTION H-0443/08
for Question Time at the part-session in July 2008
pursuant to Rule 109 of the Rules of Procedure
by Robert Evans
to the Commission

Subject: Medical support across the EU

Can the Commission clarify exactly what entitlements to medical support EU citizens have when travelling to another Member State? Does the support provided by the European Health Insurance Card apply to all age-related illnesses?

As the methods of financing health services vary from Member State to Member State, what procedures are in place to enable a fair and equitable system that provides proper support for all those in need?

What arrangements are in place for those travelling to tax havens such as Andorra, the Channel Islands, Lichtenstein, etc., which are surrounded by the EU but are not themselves deemed EU territory?
