Subject: Spanish property sales for non-resident EU nationals

Recently the European Commission brought infringement proceedings against Spain on the grounds that its domestic law discriminated against non-resident EU nationals in relation to property sales and capital gains tax. However this only applies for those people who sold their homes from 2007 onwards.

What is the Commission doing to help those EU citizens who sold their houses before 31 December 2006 and fell foul of the pre-2007 rule?
