for Question Time at the part-session in September II 2008 pursuant to Rule 109 of the Rules of Procedure by Seán Ó Neachtain
to the Council

Subject: Rising food prices

Among the Council priorities for the French Presidency is sustainable development in the agriculture and fisheries sectors. In the current economic climate, when Europe and the wider world are affected by rising food prices, what can and will the Council do to ensure that the urgent short-term needs of food supply are met without compromising the sustainability of future development in agriculture and fisheries?
