Subject: Proposals to encourage growth and entrepreneurship in the SME sector

In the past few months the Commission, by introducing proposals on Member States' balance of payments, on deposit guarantee schemes, on the Capital Requirements Directive (COM(2008)0602) and on credit rating agencies, has taken action to both restore the stability to economies and market and to remove obscurities from the financial system. To further aid recovery, what proposals is the Commission coming forward with that will encourage growth, entrepreneurship and competitiveness in the real economy, especially in the SME sector?
