Amendment

Article 56

Commitments

1. If, during proceedings under this Section, the very large online platform concerned offers commitments to ensure compliance with the relevant provisions of this Regulation, the Commission may by decision make those commitments binding on the very large online platform concerned and declare that there are no further grounds for action.

2. The Commission may, upon request or on its own initiative, reopen the proceedings:

(a) where there has been a material change in any of the facts on which the decision was based;

(b) where the very large online platform concerned acts contrary to its commitments; or

(c) where the decision was based on incomplete, incorrect or misleading information provided by the very large online platform concerned or other person referred to in Article 52(1).

3. Where the Commission considers that the commitments offered by the very large online platform concerned are unable to ensure effective compliance with the relevant provisions of this Regulation, it shall reject those commitments in a reasoned decision when concluding the proceedings.

1. The Commission shall adopt an annual report on the state of the digital economy. This report shall provide an analysis of the market position, influence and business models of the gatekeepers in the common market. This report shall provide an overview over the effects of the DSA and an analysis of the market position, influence and business models of VLOPs in the common market. The report shall include a summary of the activities of the Agency regarding the enforcement of all provisions of this Regulation, in particular of Chapter III of this Regulation, as well as an assessment on whether the provisions of this Regulation, other relevant Union legislation and current enforcement levels are adequate to address risks for democracy and fundamental rights.

This annual report shall also include a social impact assessment, which assesses new digital products and services and their potential impact on mental health, user behaviour, disinformation, polarisation and democracy. In the fulfilment of this mandate, the Commission should coordinate its supervisory and monitoring efforts with those foreseen under the Digital Services Act, so as to achieve the best possible synergies.

2. The European Parliament through its competent committees may provide an opinion on an annual basis on the report by the Commission.

3. The Commission shall reply in writing to the opinion adopted by the European Parliament and to any question addressed to it by the European Parliament or by the Council within five weeks of its receipt.

4. At the request of the European Parliament, the Commission shall participate in a hearing before the European Parliament. A hearing shall take place at least bi-annually. The respective Commissioner shall make a statement before the European Parliament and answer any questions from its members, whenever so requested. In addition, a continuous, high-level dialogue between the European Parliament and the Commission shall be ensured through exchanges which take place no less than four times a year.
