1.4.2 STOA panel

At their meeting on 25 September 2019, IMCO Coordinators decided on the three members to be appointed to the STOA Panel on behalf of the IMCO Committee. One of these appointments was Pierre Karleskind (Renew), for the first half of the legislature.

The Renew group has informed the secretariat that it would like to replace Pierre Karleskind with Karen Melchior. This change will be notified to the President, in accordance with the STOA Rules.

1.4.3 Reporting back on inter-institutional negotiations

Coordinators took note of the written feedback on two files in trilogue negotiations on behalf of the IMCO Rapporteurs, namely the Representative actions for consumers interests and Rail passengers' rights.

1.4.3 Back to "normal" business

The Secretariat informed Coordinators that Committees have been requested to submit dates for remote meetings (2h limit) at least until October. VP Charanzová informed that it is possible the EP will continue with remote meetings until the end of the year.

1.4.4 Congratulations to Chair De Sutter

Mr Schwab congratulated the Chair for her 3th place in the ranking of the most influent MEPs on health policy in the EP political groups.

1.5.5 Opinion to ITRE on SMEs

Coordinators took note of the fact that this INI has not yet been authorized (therefore there is no procedure and possibility to open the AMs deadline on AT4AM) and the fact that ITRE wants to maintain the original timetable with an adoption in October> This makes it impossible for IMCO to have its amendments submitted in AT4AM on 9 July.

Coordinators endorsed the Secretariat's proposal to invite Members to submit a limited number of amendments in word (old way), which the Secretariat will prepare and send to translation.

1.6.6 Use of iVote and ballot paper vote

The Chair congratulated the Secretariat for the smooth running of the mixed voting session and the quick distribution of the results.
