

ORAL QUESTION O-0057/99

pursuant to Rule 42 of the Rules of Procedure

by Ana Palacio Vallelersundi, on behalf of the Committee on Legal Affairs and the Internal Market
to the Commission

Subject: Communication from the Commission to the European Parliament and the Council:
 'The Strategy for Europe's Single Market'

The Commission's Strategy for Europe's Single Market sets out a novel-rolling programme of legislative and non-legislative target actions which are to be identified, reviewed and updated in accordance with an annual single market cycle. How, especially in the case of non-legislative initiatives, does the Commission intend to ensure that Parliament's views are duly taken into account at all stages in that cycle consistently with the new institutional balance created by the Treaty of Amsterdam?
