

WRITTEN QUESTION P-2254/02
by Marianne Eriksson (GUE/NGL)
to the Council

Subject: Human rights in Western Sahara

When the European Parliament's Ad Hoc Delegation for Western Sahara was in Western Sahara in February, we had the opportunity to meet representatives of various interest groups. Subsequently, three of them lost their jobs as a direct consequence of their contact with Parliament: Moumen Mohamed Mahmoud of National Promotion and Moutik Elhoussine and Noumria Brahim, both of the Sahara Section of the Forum of Truth and Justice. Is the Council aware of this, and what measures will it take?
