

WRITTEN QUESTION P-3852/02
by Christopher Beazley (PPE-DE)
to the Commission

Subject: Employment of non-national EU citizens in national museums

It is the practice in some Member States to refuse employment to non-national EU citizens in national museums. Is this in conflict with the Single Market undertaking of their governments, and what action will the Commission put in hand to rectify the problem?