

WRITTEN QUESTION P-0635/04
by W.G. van Velzen (PPE-DE)
to the Commission

Subject: Creation of a European Network and Information Security Agency (ENISA)

Has the Commission already started preparatory work on the early establishment of a European Network and Information Security Agency and, if so, what is involved?

Can the Commission say when, at the earliest, the Agency will be operational?

Where will the Agency finally be established?

When will the decision to establish the Agency be published in the Official Journal?
