

WRITTEN QUESTION P-0934/04
by Mogens Camre (UEN)
to the Commission

Subject: Breakdown of EU staff by grades A, B, C and D

In 2003, funds were allocated from the EU budget for a total of 31 000 permanent posts and 1 966 temporary posts in the EU's institutions. Broken down by institution, the figures are as follows:

Commission: 21 849 permanent posts, 685 temporary posts.

Parliament: 4 170 permanent posts, 790 temporary posts.

Council: 2 866 permanent posts, 53 temporary posts.

Court of Justice: 862 permanent posts, 278 temporary posts.

Court of Auditors: 509 permanent posts, 279 temporary posts.

Economic and Social Committee: 501 permanent posts, 24 temporary posts.

Committee of the Regions: 230 permanent posts, 22 temporary posts.

Ombudsman: 13 permanent posts, 18 temporary posts.

Will the Commission provide a breakdown of the total number of staff in each grade (A, B, C and D) by nationality within the EU?
