

WRITTEN QUESTION P-0934/05
by Camiel Eurlings (PPE-DE)
to the Council

Subject: The position of Christians in Iraq

It is reported that the turnout for the elections in Iraq was not high among Christians. In the province of Nineveh, for example, it was apparently not possible for Christian Iraqis to vote.

1. Is the Council aware of these reports?
2. What will the Council do to ensure that these Christians are able to exert sufficient influence in the new democratic Iraq and to ensure that these problems do not arise again in future?
