

WRITTEN QUESTION P-4797/05
by Diana Wallis (ALDE)
to the Commission

Subject:           Liability of service providers

Since the withdrawal of the proposed directive on the liability of suppliers of services (COM (90) 482 final<sup>1</sup>) there has been no concrete plan at European level to reconsider proposals on this issue. Given the increasing need to improve citizens' access to cross-border justice, and bearing in mind the current debate on the proposed directive on services (COM (2004) 0002), will the Commission consider bringing forward a new legislative proposal on liability of service providers?
