

WRITTEN QUESTION P-5516/08
by Sylwester Chruszcz (NI)
to the Commission

Subject: Ratification of the Lisbon Treaty in Poland

In connection with the information given on the Lisbon Treaty pages on the Commission's official site (http://europa.eu/lisbon_treaty/countries/index_en.htm), does the Commission consider the ratification process to have been completed in Poland, as is suggested by the country being shown in green, or has there been a mistake, and my country should in fact appear in blue (Countries where ratification is still in progress)?

If the Commission considers that ratification is still in progress in Poland and that there is no mistake on the above page, would it explain why it takes this view?
