

WRITTEN QUESTION P-0165/09
by Francesco Enrico Speroni (UEN)
to the Commission

Subject: Monopoly on air transport in Italy

The merger between the airline companies Alitalia and Air One has created the conditions for a de facto monopoly, especially on national routes, and in particular Milan Linate to Rome Fiumicino.

It has also been speculated that use of that Milan airport will only be permitted for flights on that route.

What action will the Commission take to uphold the rules on competition between EU carriers?
