

WRITTEN QUESTION P-0673/09
by Esko Seppänen (GUE/NGL)
to the Commission

Subject: Sales promotion campaigns

In Finland, there are many different interpretations of the Commission's position on the use of national symbols to promote sales of products. What instructions has the Commission issued on the subject, and how, for example, does it interpret the use of a Member State's flag to advertise the origin of a product, and how far does the ban on depictions of landscapes extend?
