to the Commission

Subject: Youth empowerment in European Union policies

Last year, an ample majority of Members of the European Parliament signed the written declaration on youth empowerment in European Union policies.

It called on the Commission to take account of the impact on youth and the results of the structured dialogue with youth organisations when preparing legislative proposals, in particular in the following policy fields: education and lifelong learning, employment, social integration, health, youth autonomy, mobility, fundamental rights and non-discrimination.

What action has the Commission taken to fully comply with this call from the European Parliament?
